

KENNETT CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Athletic and Marching Band Fees

Students in Kennett High School and Kennett Middle School are required to pay athletic and marching band fees to offset the cost of transportation, equipment, supplies, and other expenses directly associated with these activities.

Please complete the form below and return it along with your check or money order made payable to Kennett Consolidated School District. See the reverse side for fee amounts and applicable groups.

- Athletic Director and/or coaches will establish and communicate form and fee collection dates for each team prior to the first official practice. Fees must be submitted to the athletic office at the high school and the main office at the middle school.
- Fees for high school marching band will be submitted to the high school band director at the second meeting of marching band.

Circumstances Eligible for Reimbursement - Any athlete who sustains a documented (applicable doctor's note) season-ending injury before the first PIAA recognized game and decides to not stay with the team is eligible to have the fee reimbursed by the District. Any student who gets cut during athletic team tryouts is eligible to have the fee reimbursed by the District.
